

Bachelor in occupational therapy

Title	Ects credits	Autumn/Spring	language of instruction	assessment methods
Applied Occupational Therapy I	5	Autumn	French
Geriatric patient care, fall prevention, cognitive impairment, Alzheimer's disease and dementia, Occupational Therapy in Mental Health, oncology patient, care for the dying
Geriatric occupational therapy		Autumn	French	written
Psychiatric occupational therapy		Autumn	French	group and personal work
Dedicated workshop to professional integration		Autumn	French	continuous
Applied occupational therapy II	5	Autumn	French
Inclusive education, specific learning difficulties, pedagogical support, neurological diseases, rehabilitation child normal development, practical assessments, clinical cases, dysfonctions and rehabilitation, health models and disability models
Dedicated seminar to professional integration : children with specific learning difficulties		Autumn	French	written
Occupational therapy in adult neurorehabilitation		Autumn	French	written
Occupational therapy in child neurorehabilitation		Autumn	French	written
Human occupation analysis and patient's participation		Autumn	French	continuous/personal work
Research in occupational therapy	1	Autumn	French
Model of conscious competence, decision making in occupational therapy practice and multi-disciplinary practice
Ethics and code of conduct		Autumn	French	written
Professional integration activities	18	Autumn	French
Clinical placement (internship)		Autumn	French	Qualitative evaluation by the mentor
Elective course (see international coordinator)		Autumn	French	oral

23-24 December 23 Minor changes may happen in contents. Assessment methods may be modified at the beginning of the academic year (september)
Please check the latest version on our website : <https://www.helb-prigogine.be/ergo-menu/>